legacy is being forged
at this very moment!

Compassionate Value-Based Leadership and Emotional Intelligence ?

Two Questions to Ask:

- What do they need from me at this moment?
- How do I want to show up for them to meet their need?

Things to work on during the down time?

- YOUR BRAND (It's a promise you make to all stakeholders)
- YOUR PRACTICE VALUES (They may change after Covid 19)
- INCREASE COMMUNICATION WITH STAFF (Virtual)
- BECOME "OTHER" FOCUSED

Take Aways

There has never been a greater test of our ability to lead than this very moment.

Organizational cultures take years to create, but only moments to destroy.

Words have power, and decisions have consequences. Remain grounded and choose both wisely.

When all is said and done and this crisis is a memory, the decisions we make now will shape our future for years to come.
